

MOTUS 1972

the thirtieth volume
Saint Francis College
Biddeford, Maine

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Saint Francis College

Biddeford, Maine 04005

June 23, 1972

On behalf of the Saint Francis College community, I congratulate the members of the Class of 1972.

Your years at Saint Francis were coincident in time with four years of turmoil and unrest in American society. You have challenged the values of the broad society concerning war, civil rights, poverty, environmental pollution, etc. - To some extent, at least, your challenge has been successful in awakening the American conscience.

But problems of yesteryear remain, and the past is now your legacy. How will you, in turn, respond to the challenges? Will you prove yourselves to be liberated? Will you respond free of irrationality, prejudice, and pure self interest? Will you give of yourselves openly - perhaps completely - toward the resolution of human problems?

We are anxious about your responses, for the measure in which you respond, individually and collectively, will be one measure of success achieved in the task that brought us together on this campus.

Thus we wish you well. We pray that the influence of Saint Francis, the person and the institution, sustains you in the important work that lies ahead. May your lives be both happy and profitable.

Cordially,

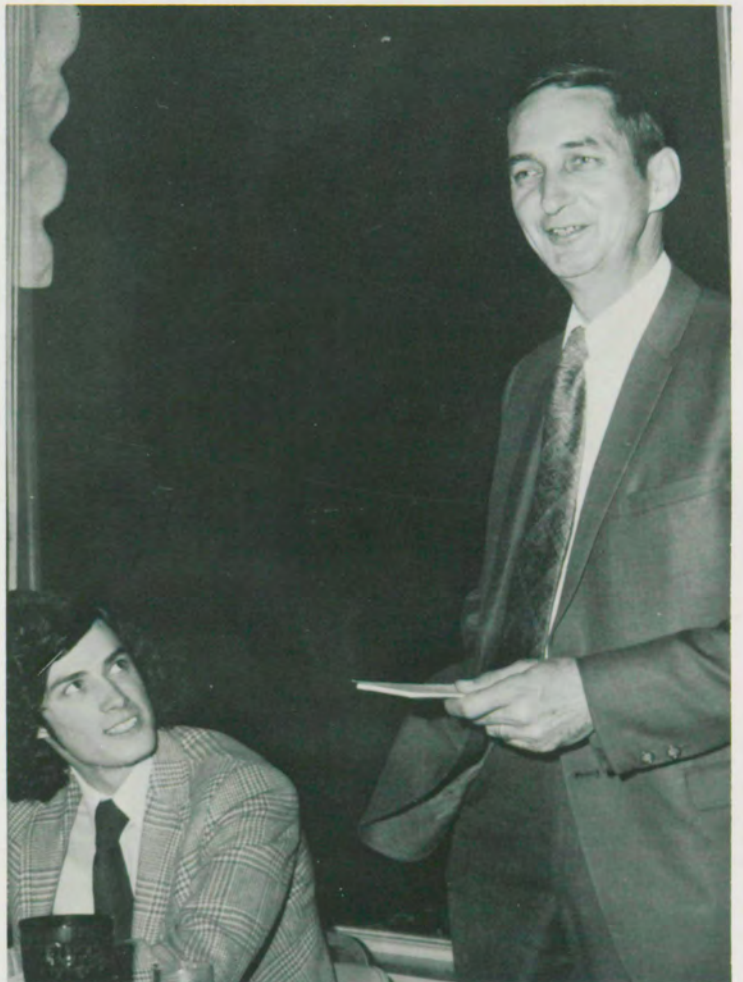

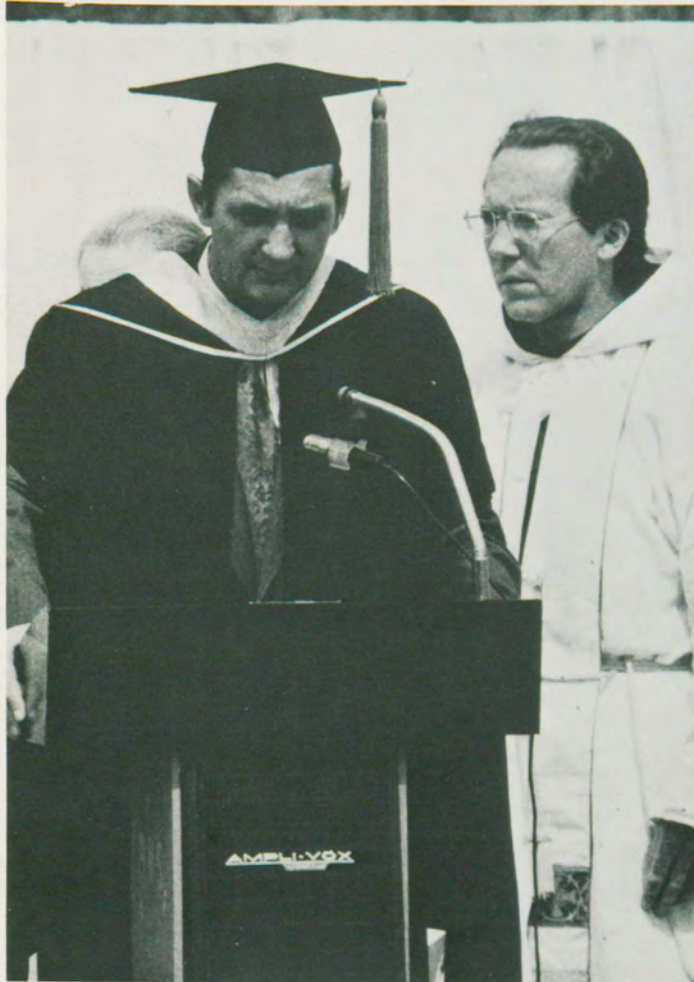

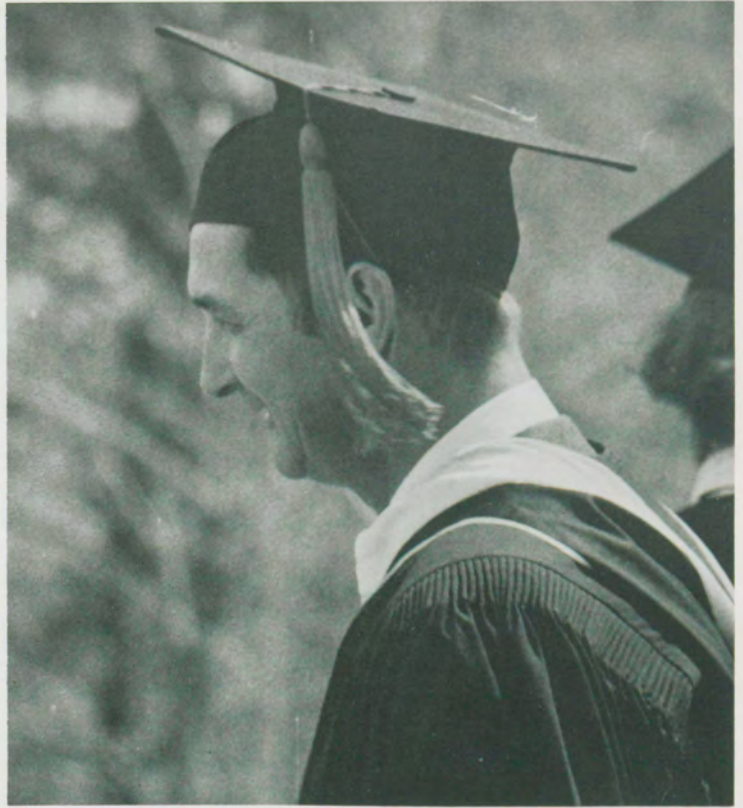

Ernest R. Therrien
Acting President

We dedicate the 1972 MOTUS to

The MOTUS would like to give special recognition to the Ladies Guild for all the time and work they put into St. Francis. On behalf of the entire student body THANK YOU.

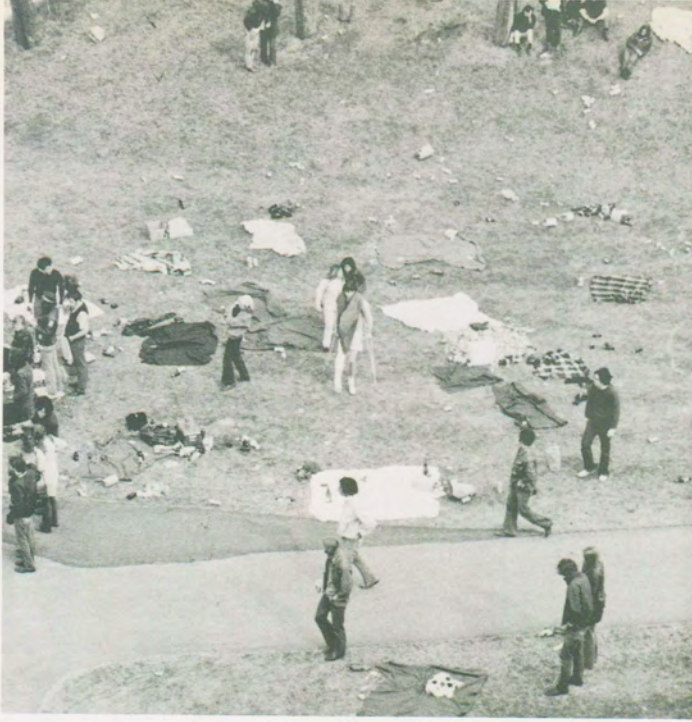

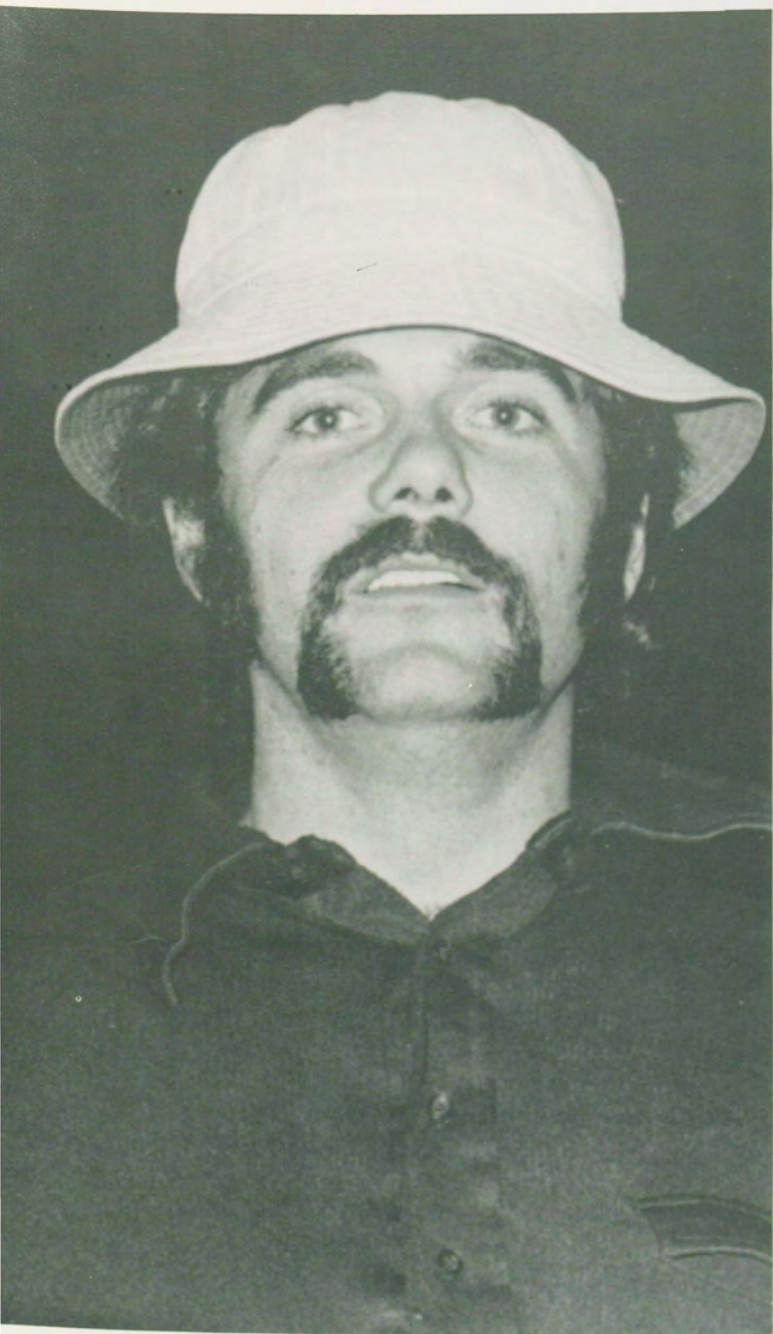

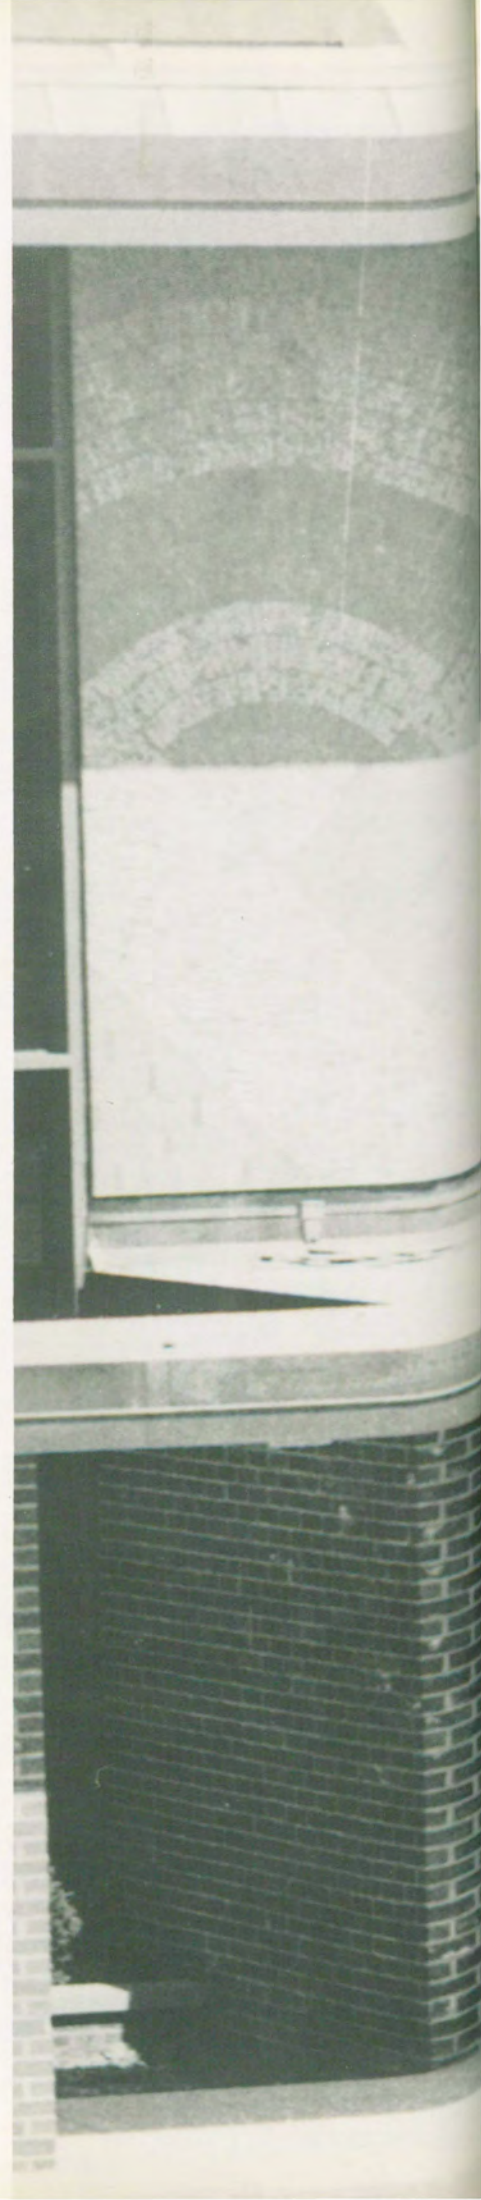

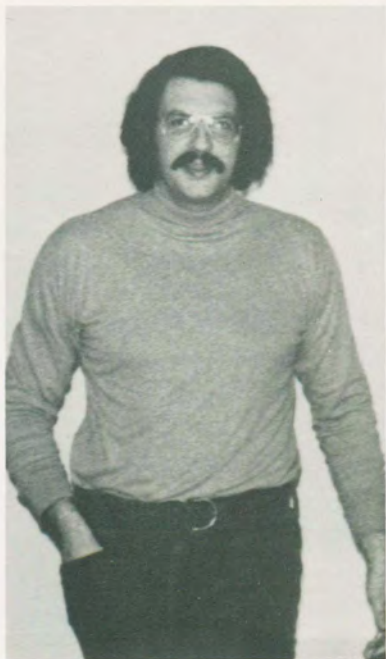

One who has hope touches life in new forms, seeing, feeling, hearing things never noticed before. He catches the light and warmth of people as they knit themselves in love, and learns that persons around him call for his talents, energies and love.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

Gifts alone do not entice love,
parting does not discourage love,
poverty does not chase love,
jealousy does not prove its awareness;
madness does not evidence its presence.

Love is a trembling happiness.

K. Gibran

There are those who give little of the much which they have—and they give it for recognition and their hidden desire makes their gifts unwholesome.

And there are those who have little and give it all.

These are the believers in life and the bounty of life, and their coffer is never empty.

K. Gibran

There are those who give with joy, and that joy is their reward.

For his eighth consecutive year, Dick Doughty did his thing at St. Francis. This is the only college on Dick's tour. The MOTUS would like to extend great thanks to Dick and his group for all of the good times they have brought us here at St. Francis. It seems no matter what the atmosphere is like on campus before Dick comes it is always better after he has been here. We all hope that the future will bring bigger and better weekends.

But if in your thought you must measure time into seasons, let each season encircle all the other seasons,

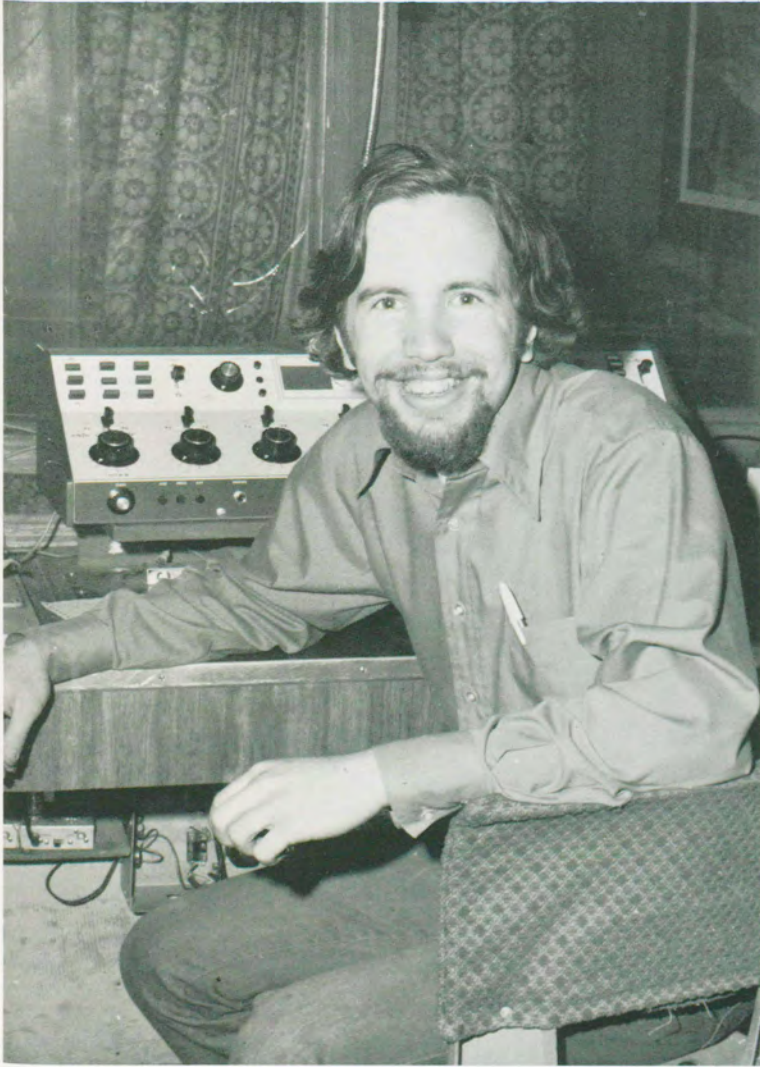

And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing.

So as the weekend comes to an end so does the year. For some the end of a long journey, for others just a small part of a long journey.

We wanderers, ever seeking the lonelier way, begin no day where we have ended another day; and no sunrise finds us where sunset left us.

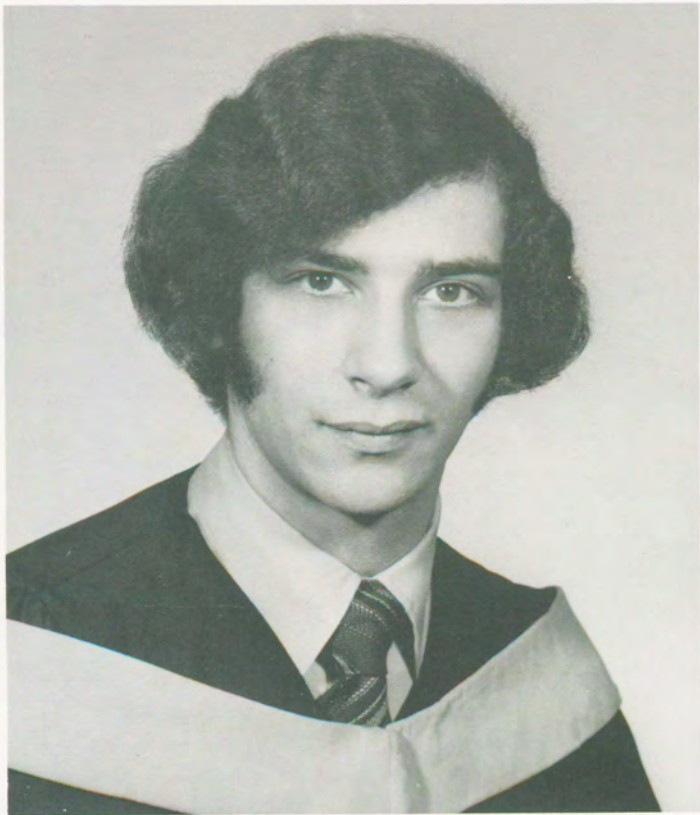

Even while the earth sleeps we travel.
We are the seeds of the tenacious plant, and it is our ripeness and our fullness of heart that we are given to the wind and are scattered.

Strange faces come through the streets to me like messengers:
and I have been warned by the moving slowly of hands at a window.

O, I have the sense of infinity—
But the world, sailors, is round.
They say there is no end to it.
